Mixed-Blood Utes To Get $2,205,000 Of Tribal Assets

The Bureau of Indians Affairs has authorized payment of $2,205,000 to mixed blood Ute Indians, it was announced by U S Sen Wallace F Bennett recently

Payment is authorized under Public Law 671, which terminates federal control over the Utes The payment will be made from tribal assets and will amount to about $4 500 per Indian

Sen Bennett said that the area director of the bureau at Phoenix, Arizona, will direct the payment of the money.